To the Seniors of '79,

The theme of this yearbook, your yearbook, is "Sunrise, Sunset." It is a song taken from the Broadway musical Fiddler on the Roof. The sunrise signifies a beginning, the joy of a new day, a new way of life. The sunset is representative of an ending, the closing of a finished chapter, the sorrow of parting with an old way of life. Life at Pecos High School has been filled with memories for us all, many of them beautiful, a few sad. Yet, they are all important. The seniors of 1979 have come to the sunset of their days at Pecos High School. If, somehow, preserved in the pages of this book are the memories—the smiles, the joys, and even the headaches, of this year—all the work put into this yearbook has been worthwhile. As we approach the dawning of a new way of life, I hope that you will look back on your years at Pecos High School with love and fond memories, and remember with pride that you were a Senior of '79!

Sincerely,
Dalene Whitehurst: Editor

Mitchell McLain and Neil Fonville will go to any length to get a good picture.

Business Manager Janie Hudson looks over some business materials.

Cynthia and Dalene look over a contact sheet to find pictures for the yearbook.

We the Eagle Staff proudly dedicate the 1979

Mrs. Shepherd stands proudly during the Pecos High School Alma Mater.

Mrs. Emma Shepherd has taught in Pecos for thirty-three years. During this time she has become one of the finest teachers at Pecos High School. Her true dedication to the field of education has made her an example for teachers and students alike. She has shaped the lives of many students, both in the classroom and in working with the Future Teachers of America. It is certain that she will remain in the memories of her students forever. As she retires at the end of this year, we would like to thank her for caring about our lives and for all her hard work. We are proud to dedicate this yearbook to her.

Edition of the Eagle to Mrs. Emma Shepherd and Mrs. Odie Bounds

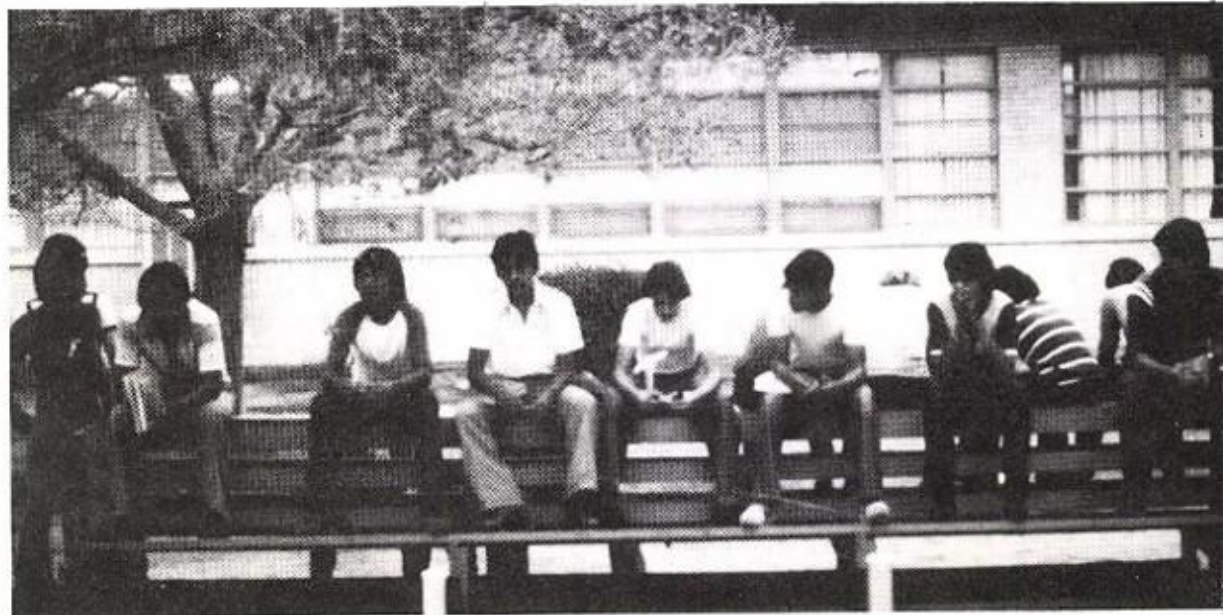

Mrs. Odie Bounds has been teaching for forty-six years and has spent seventeen of them in Pecos. She is a special teacher to everyone, and it is the extra mile she has gone with her work that makes her so. She has worked with students in U.I.L. math events and has spent many hours helping both jr. high and high school students. She has shown students only the highest moral standards and is an outstanding example to young teachers at Pecos High School. We will all always remember Mrs. Bounds and her work with us. It is with pride that we dedicate this yearbook to her.

Mrs. Bounds attends pep-rallies regularly and is an Eagle supporter.

The 1979 Senior Class presented Willian E. Barrett's "The Lilies of the Field" for their Senior Class Play. It was presented on December 7 & 8, at 8:00 p.m. The play told the story of a group of German Nuns who had come to America to be free to worship God as they wanted to. They came to own a farm in Arizona, in a very dry, arid region, and needed help from someone, preferably a "Big Strong Man". The story of Mother Maria Marthe and her conflicts with the man sent to her are the real plot of the play. Homer Smith, a wandering army veteran, comes to know the Nuns. Against seemingly impossible circumstances, he builds them a chapel, almost single-handedly. His concern for the German Nuns makes the play a touching, memorable story.

1. Homer Smith (Kenneth Ford) and Mother Maria Marthe (Alice Speh) seem to be having a very serious conversation.

2. Homer Smith (Kenneth Ford) philosophizes on life in general, while playing his guitar.

3. Homer Smith entertains the German-speaking Nuns (Alice Speh, Hilda Arrendo, Nancy Lujan, Tammy Wilkerson, and Anna Fuentes) with an enjoyable and informative song session.

4. Father Gomez (Genaro Rodriguez) tells the story of Homer Smith.

5. Mother Maria Marthe (Alice Speh) prays faithfully.

6. Homer Smith takes off his tie, unbuttons his shirt, and gets ready to do some heavy thinking.

Seniors, Seniors '79!

To the Senior Class of 1979,

"Memories, light the corners of my mind." That is the purpose of this new section of the Yearbook. We have tried to highlight some of our more memorable moments at Pecos High School in these pages. It is ten pages, totally devoted to Seniors—their faces, happenings, joys, smiles, and sorrows. There, of course, are many, many things that can never be captured with a camera or a pen, but I hope that in this section we have managed to surface memories that are special to us all. The Seniors of '79 have much to remember: A quarter-finalist football team in '76, a regional tennis finalist, various and sundry bomb threats over the years, State tournament baseball teams, proms, plays, Presentations, and so much more. We, as a class, have spent four years together—four years that have been full and busy ones. We came together having been rivals in Jr. High, and we merged into one class; now we will graduate as one class. As you all travel onward and leave Pecos High behind, it is my hope that this part of your Yearbook will occasionally bring to mind the good times at P.H.S. And it is my prayer that God may bless you all, and that however far away He leads you, this Yearbook may somehow be a tie with the past, for you can always remember with pride that you were a Senior of '79!

With love,

Dalene Hitchhurst

4. Sharon Adams lends a hand to Leslie Woodard, who seems to be untied.

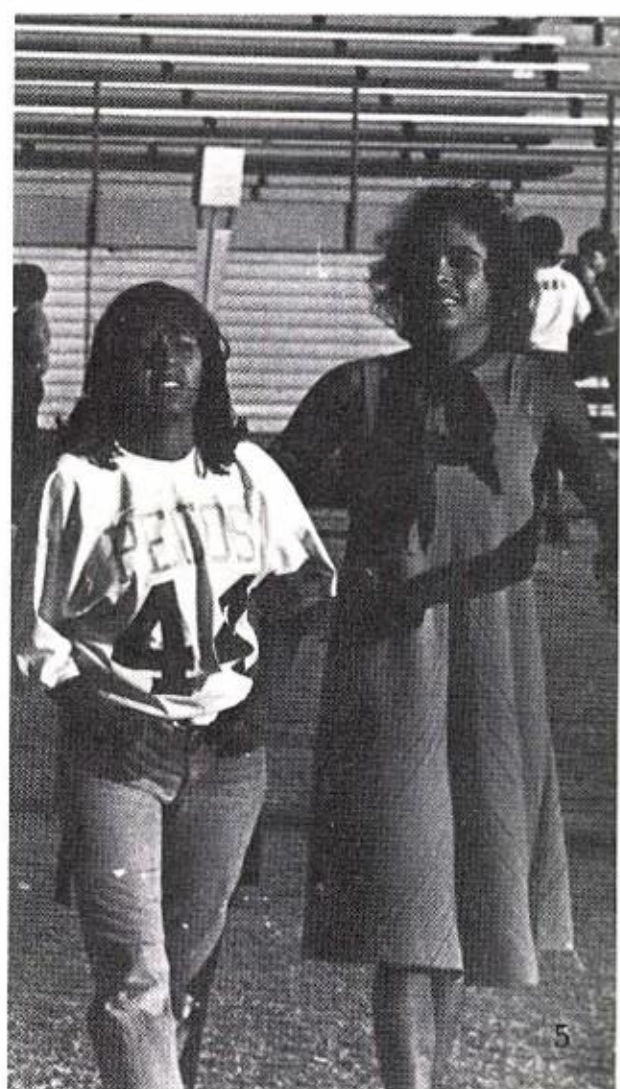

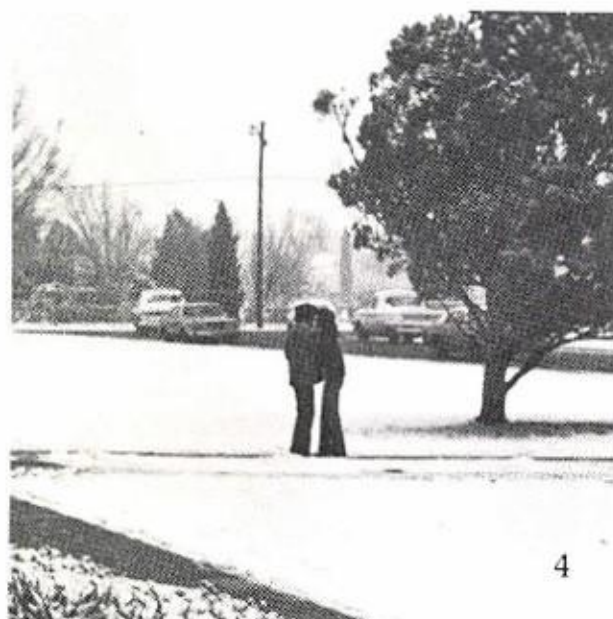

1. Ben Deischler shows everyone the right way to hit the dummy.
2. Ben Villalobos and his many friends are confident of their ability to have a winning baseball team this year.
3. Sometimes English IV can really make you want to pull your hair out; just ask Ronnie Oster!

*Couples in the Class
of '79
(The Dating Kind)*

1. Karen Hill and Lance Carrico have been a true and faithful couple over the past two years.
2. LeaAnn seems rather pleased with Michael McLain's letter jacket, but how does Michael really feel about it?
3. Ronnie Oster and Sheri Walters seem to be enjoying each other's company.
4. Not even the snow can stop these two from being together.
5. Cynthia Levario escorts her Michael during the half of the Powder Puff game.

*Couples in the Class
of '79
(The Non-Dating Kind)*

1. Miss Dennis and Vicki Helburg are good friends as well as teacher and student.
2. A couple of couple of couples, that's what they are: our senior class boasts four sets of twins: Genaro and Joel Rodriguez, Craig and Conda Hill, Celia and Celina Acosta, and Michael and Mitchell McLain.
3. Mr. Grove and Mr. Moseley are a couple of the nicest principals that any student could ever ask for.

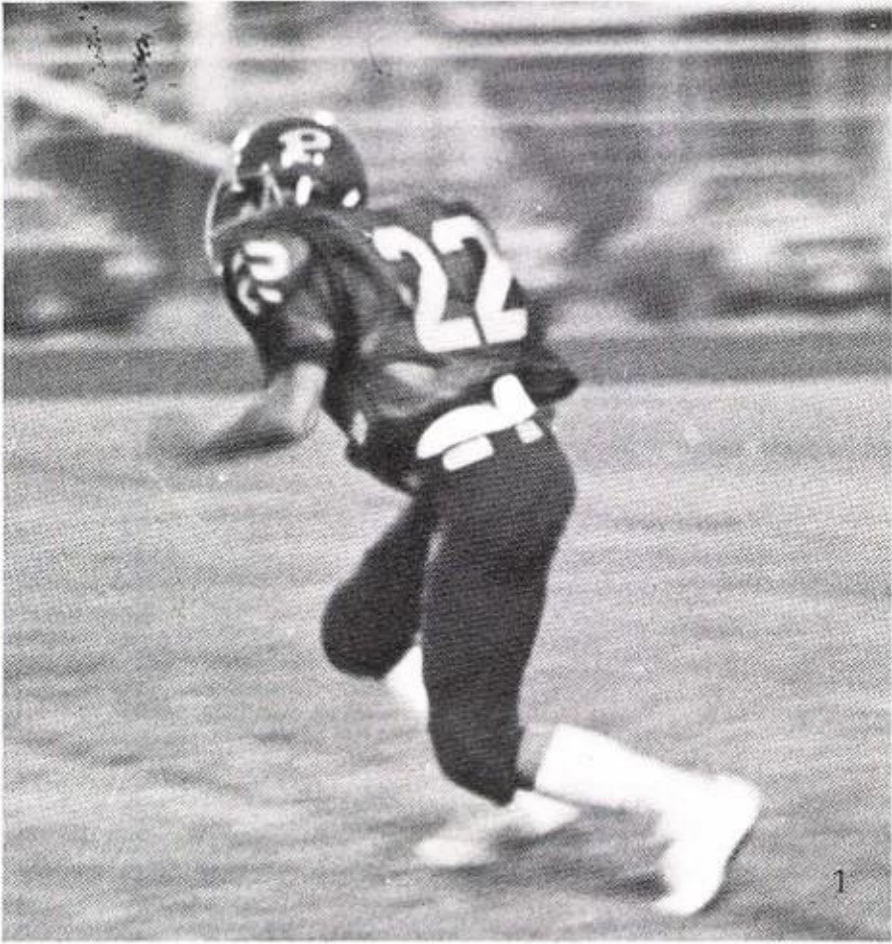

Mr. Dalton Moseley has been a very special person in the lives of the Seniors. He came to Pecos High School as principal the same year we did, 1976, and likewise he is leaving Pecos High with us. Mr. Moseley will be serving as Assistant Superintendent of the Pecos-Barstow-Toyah CISD next year. We offer him our congratulations and wish him the best of luck. Also, our thanks for all the help and support from one of the best principals any student has ever been lucky enough to have.

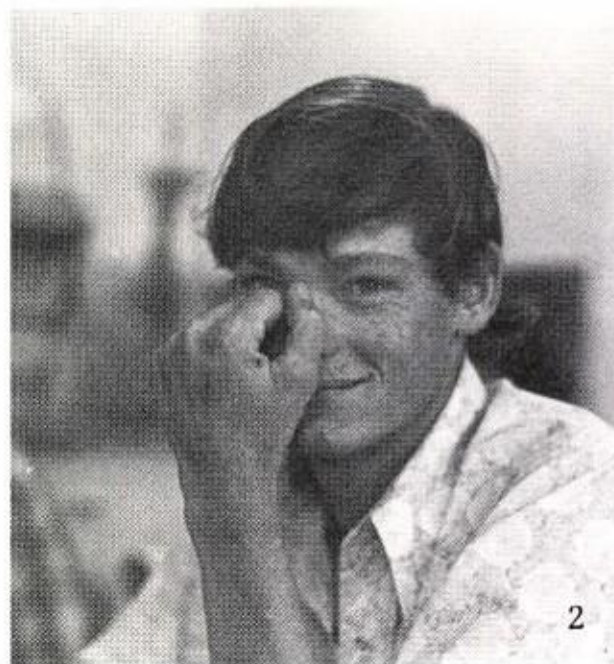

The Way We Were . . .

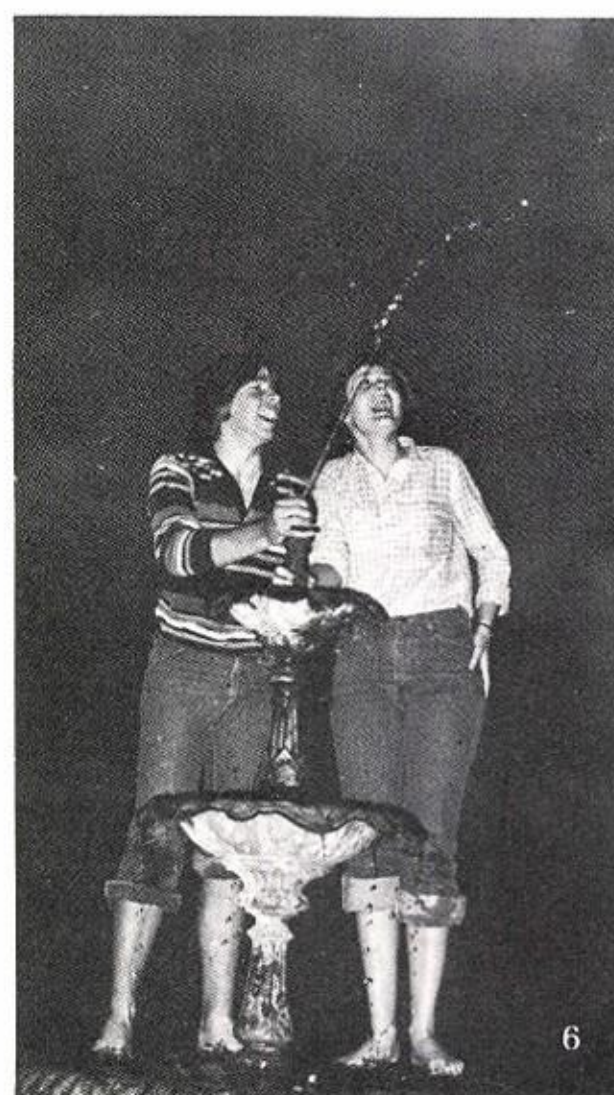

1. Angie Shoemaker portrays the perfect Roman charioteer.
2. Grace Marquez is prepared to go and cheer at a pep rally.
3. Treg Mitchell, Lance Carrico, Philip Midkiff, Doug Adkins, and Craig Hill form a pyramid to show their great spirit and dedication to cheerleading (at the Powder Puff game).

3. Memo Portillo works diligently at a Junior concession stand.
4. Rhonda Bryant portrays the perfect nurse in the Junior Class Play, "The Sunshine Boys".

1. Anna Fuentes certainly manages to look surprised when she needs to use her "Who, me?" look.
2. Russell Coleman is very displeased about something.
3. Michael McLain appears to be bored in homeroom.
4. Richard White gives some cute photographer a great big wink because, as the spirit stick that Jeff Lindaman is holding proves, "Seniors are the Best"!
5. Bobby Mosby takes life easy, one day at a time.
6. Richard White and Dalene Whitehurst found out that although they're Seniors, playing in fountains is loads of fun.
7. Ron Ennis watches as Greg Wood tries to capture Leslie Woodard before a pep rally.

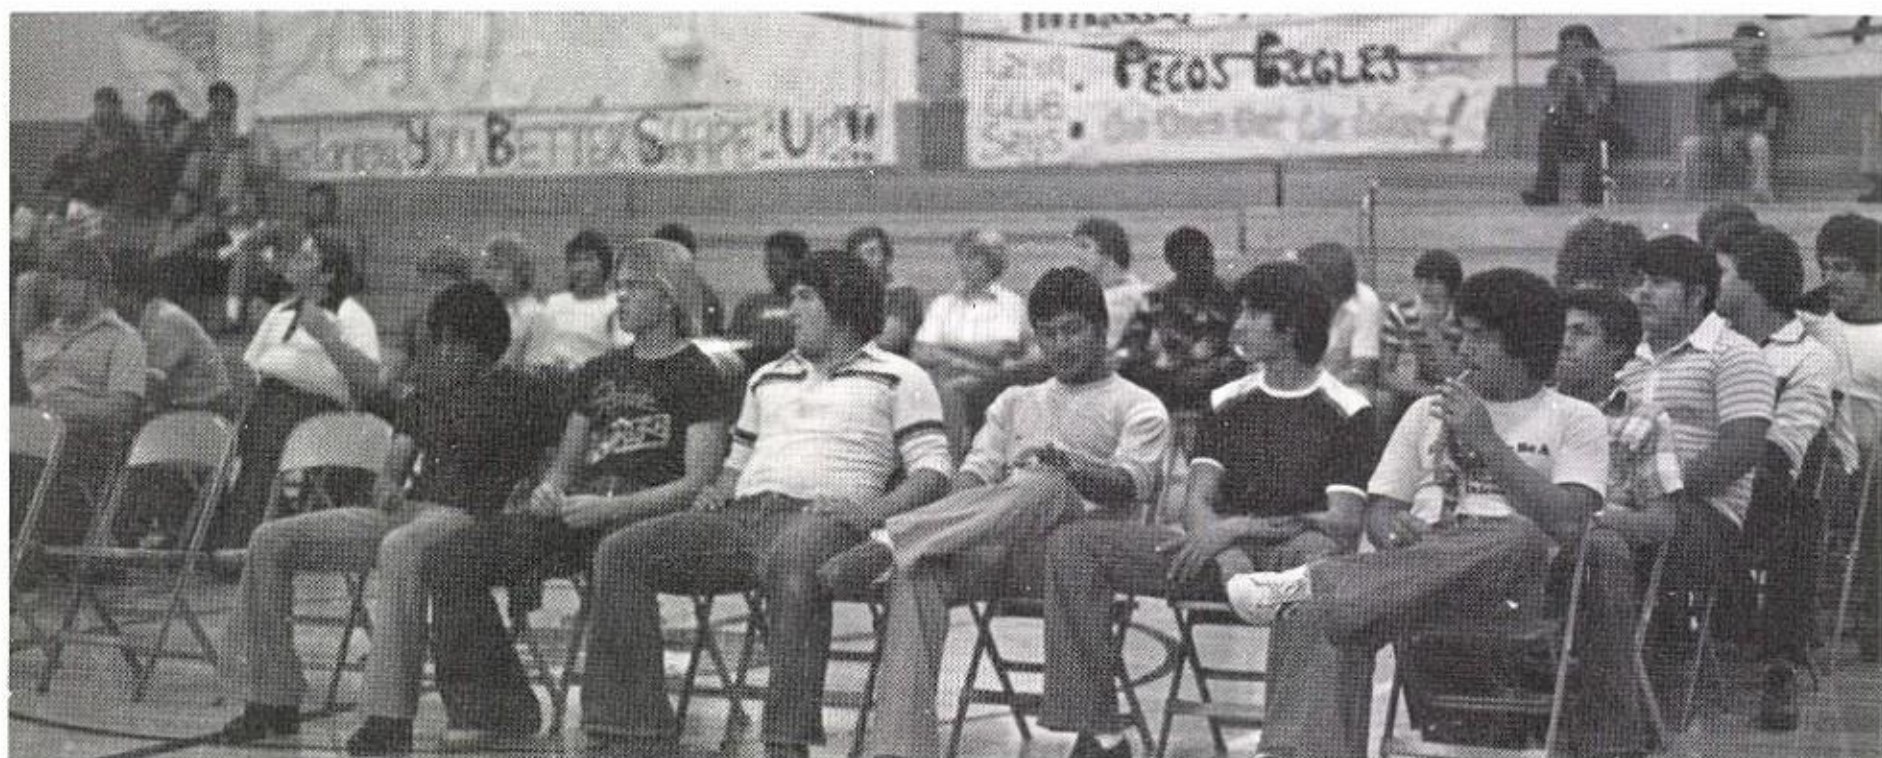

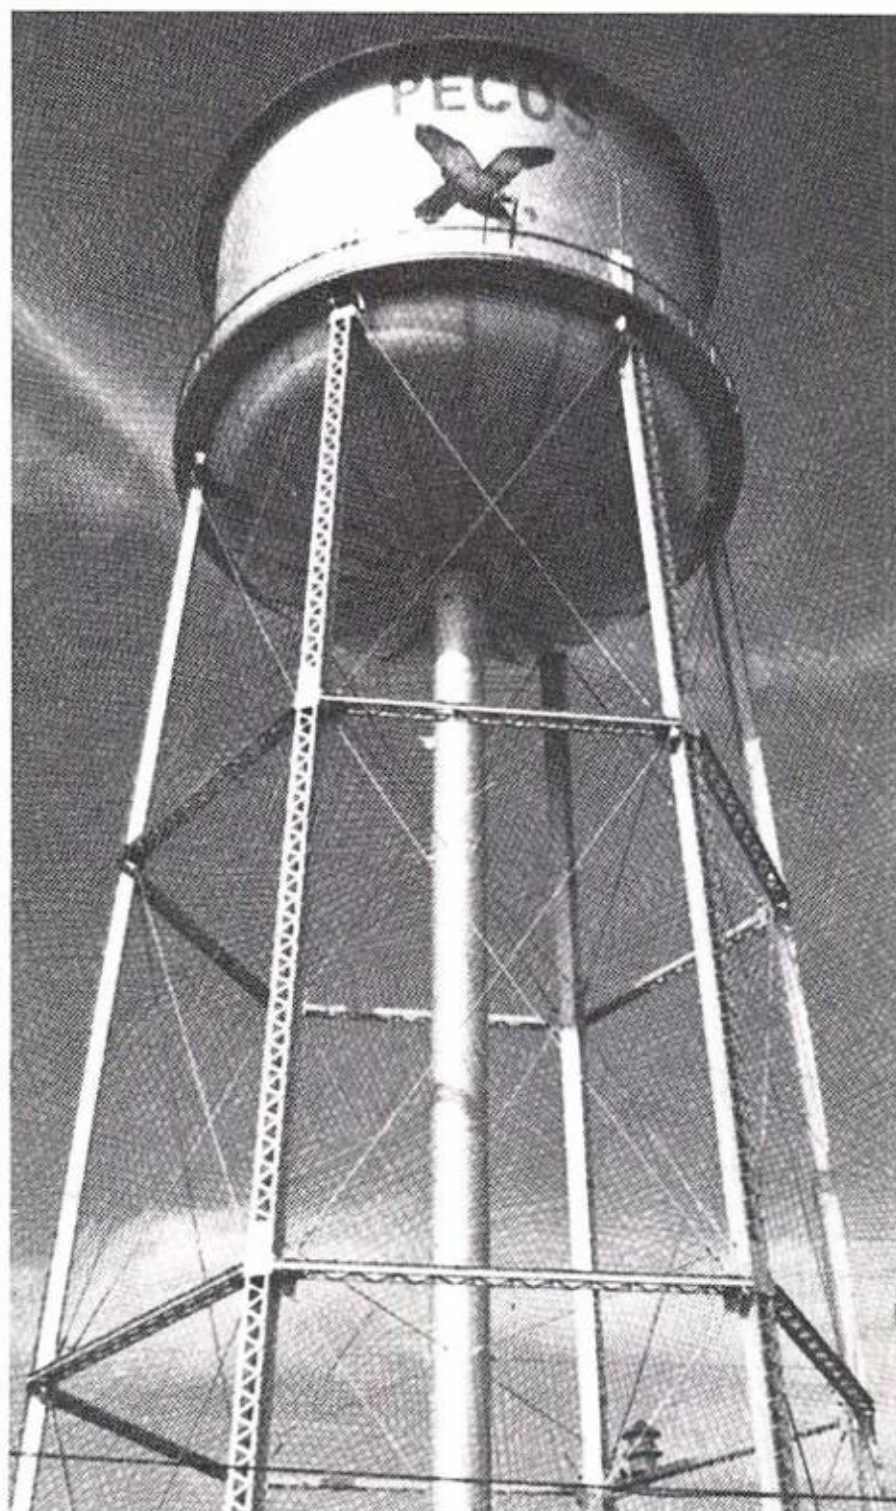

1. Smokey Thorp worked hard to make our last football season successful.
2. Our class contained much beauty, as shown in this picture of Janie Hudson.
3. Kenneth Ford knows which class is the best!
4. Our Senior Homecoming Queen Nominees, Kathy Salcido and Leslie Cassell.
5. Well, so maybe we didn't read the best books . . .
6. We loved our teachers, as shown here by Mitchell McLain's love for Mrs. Armstead.
7. Even though she is finally a senior and drum major at that, Celina Acosta still doesn't know what's going on.
8. Ed Longoria shows that he really knows how to put his feet up and study.

These are all beautiful memories, and we hope you will not forget them.

*He gives nothing but worthless gold
 Who gives from a sense of duty;
 But he who gives but a slender mite,
 And gives to that which is out of sight,
 That thread of the all-sustaining Beauty
 Which runs through all and doth all unite—
 The hand cannot grasp the whole of his alms,
 The heart outstretches its eager palms,
 For God goes with it and makes it store
 To the soul that was starving in darkness before.*

Rachel -

Well I don't know how to start out! There's not a word I can write to express how lucky I am to have a person like you as my Best friend. Rachel this year has meant a lot to me, having you there every time I needed some one to talk to. I'll always treasure our times together.

Rachel I hope that our friendship will always remain, and hope that in the future we'll get to get together often.

I want to wish you all the luck, Love and success with Mike! Rachel you're a very lucky person to have met such a wonderful family as the Peter's. They are lucky indeed to have met you + your family. I know things between you + ~~me~~ Mike will work out! Too bad you + Mike won't be in the Donut Business! Boy are they good donuts! Well I'm hoping that in the future you + Mike ~~if~~ will open your own little shop and call it Ma Lacks. HA! HA! HA! Well Rachel you're the greatest!
